FILCOM CIRCULAR NO. 3 -2016

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR FILIPINOS IN INDIA AND NEPAL

The Philippine Embassy in New Delhi informs Filipino community in India and Nepal that Calidad Humana is holding a contest entitled Calidad Humana-Kapwa Charter Making Competition. Calidad Humana is a positive and constructive attitude towards others beyond any kind of differences, giving priority to concern for people than to material things.

Participants of the competition are invited to suggest up to three (3) behaviors that people in the Philippines and around the world should practice daily in order to preserve the spirit of Calidad Humana and the Kapwa Culture. Suggestions must be done in a practical and concrete way more than only theoretic and abstract.

The Competition is open to all Filipinos and of Filipino ancestry. The contest most especially targets the youth, who will be the most active sector in this challenge. All entries will be submitted, along with the complete name and contact details of the interested party/individual, to the following:

The Criteria for Judging the Calidad Humana – Kapwa Charter Making Competition

Calidad Humana –Kapwa- is a positive and constructive attitude towards others beyond any kind of differences, giving priority to concern for people than to material things.

Without Calidad Humana –Kapwa, social harmony and peace in the world are not possible.

The participants are invited to suggest until three behaviors that people in the Filipinas and around the world should practice daily in order to preserve the spirit of Calidad Humana and the Kapwa Culture.

The suggestions must be done in a practical and concrete way more than only theoretic and abstract.

For example: “Share every day of your life something you have, depending on your resources, a piece of bread, an apple, a chocolate, etc., with somebody you meet on your way to the school or work, with your classmates, at your office, etc., but specially with needy people. And do it with respect, dignity and plenty of affection”.

The behavior must be complemented with one or two pages explaining its relevance on preserving the Calidad Humana-Kapwa Culture and its contribution for the peace in the world.

The competition is open to all Filipinos most especially the youth who will be the most active sector in this challenge. The competition would be very simple. All entries must be submitted online or by mail to the any of the bellowed addresses and must have the complete name and contact details of the interested party/individual.

All interested parties can use the book entitled, Calidad Humana: Sharing the Filipino Spirit as reference. Portions of the book are online via the LopezLink website under the Lopez Museum Page.

The selected behaviors with the names of the authors will be integrated in a "Calidad Humana –Kapwa- Charter" and published in a next Calidad Humana Book, to be distributed in the Filipinas and around the world.

Exciting Prizes Awaits all Winners!

Deadline of Submissions: May 31, 2016
