04 March 2022 – The Philippine Embassy in New Delhi, led by the Daughter of Ambassador Ramon S. Bagatsing, Jr, Ms. Aym Bagatsing, participated in “Colors of Batik,” an art activity and batik-style painting contest initiated by the ASEAN Ladies Circle in New Delhi.

The event was a gathering to celebrate women creativity since the month of March is known as International Women’s Month. The Spouses of the ASEAN Heads of Mission, together with their lady family members and staff also engaged in the activity. Much interest and delight were shown by the ladies since this was their first activity for the year.

Participants were given Batik embossed kits where they painted colors of their choice. Special prizes were given to Top 3 winners. Thereafter, they enjoyed the sumptuous lunch prepared by the Malaysia High Commission, host of the event.
